

I wish the FCC would leave Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law alone. The unwanted telemarketing calls is very annoying. I pay for caller ID now so that I can still screen calls; this is an added expense I had hoped to do away with but haven't been able to yet. So if you mess with our laws I can certainly forget about eliminating this expense. Leave the law alone or make it STRONGER!!!